Gogte Institute of Technology (GIT), the flagship institute of Karnatak Law Society (KLS), was established in 1979. Spread across a 20-acre campus, GIT offers 8 under-graduate, 9 post-graduate, and 10 research programmes. The institute has more than 4,000 students registered in various programmes and its total staff strength is more than 420. GIT is affiliated to Visvesvaraya Technological University (VTU), a state university having 186 colleges affiliated to it with under-graduate programmes in 28 disciplines and post-graduate programmes in 71 disciplines. KLS was formed in 1939 by a group of philanthropists and lawyers. KLS imparts education in engineering, management, and allied areas to more than 20,000 students through 11 institutes in various parts of North Karnataka.

Best Practices Followed

- Tie-ups with National Stock Exchange, Entrepreneurship Development Institute (Ahmedabad) and Microsoft India for certificate programmes to enhance student employability and promote entrepreneurship.
- International exposure to students and faculty through short term visits.

Curriculum

The programme follows a semester pattern with 7 to 8 subjects per semester. GIT offers courses in general management, finance, human resource management, and marketing. The pedagogy involves a mix of lectures, case studies, and group assignments.

For 32 students in 2013-14 (refers to financial year, April 1 to March 31), the institute organised a 10-day industrial visit to Shanghai including Volkswagen. The remaining batch visited IIM-Ahmedabad, Nirma University and had an industrial visit to Adani Industries.

Industry Interaction

In academic year 2014-15, the institute hosted 19 guest lectures covering a range of sectors like finance, real estate and automotive.

GIT conducted 2 Management Development Programmes (MDPs) in 2014 with more than 50 participants. Despite location constrain, the institute has maintained its efforts to develop a strong regional brand through MDPs and consultancy assignments for local small and medium enterprises.

Infrastructure

GIT has a self sufficient Wi-Fi campus spread over 20 acres. Accomodation facilities are available on campus with capacity for over 300 boys and 320 girls.

The library dedicated to the MBA programme has over 2000 book titles, along with 50 national and international journals and periodicals on various specialisation of management.

Audio facility has been added to all classrooms converting them into smart classrooms.
